

Nathaniel The Great

www.NathanielOnline.com

Brooklyn's own, RnB singer Nathaniel The Great is relentlessly proving that his borough breeds more than just great hip hop acts. Aside from adding songwriter and producer to his arsenal, Musiq Soulchild, Usher and Donny Hathaway were some of his musical influences. Giving contemporary RnB a fresh sound, blending hip hop and neo-soul makes it safe to say that Nathaniel's talents are very unique. Raised by a single mother of seven, in Brooklyn's Fort Greene housing projects, singing in church and performing in plays were ritual early on. Before you knew it, a star was born. Since then, his vocals have been featured on projects with French Montana, Wiz

Khalifa, Dj Khaled, Swizz Beats and Remy Ma to name a few. After earning his BA in Computer Information Systems, Nathaniel designed his own mobile for Iphone and Android users. This allows him to have directed access to his fans while fully controlling his content. In 2020 he has gained over 2 million streams worldwide as well as being covered in major radio domestically and internationally. He has recently launched his own label Born Great Music and signed his first artist Xay Oblivion. Nathaniel is looking to usher in a new generation of music for year to come. Stay tuned...
